Incident Summary: On 12/4/2020, at approximately 3:07AM, Columbus Patrol Officers were dispatched to 199 S. Central Avenue on the report that someone arrived at this location suffering from a gunshot wound. The victim was transported to Grant Hospital by CFD Medic and is expected to survive his injuries. The victim told detectives that he was approached by three male whites, who were driving a red pickup truck, while on Sullivant Avenue. One of the males asked the victim where they could purchase narcotics. The victim took the suspects to 1441 W. Rich Street where one of the males completed his transaction and got back into the truck. The victim was walking away when the red pickup truck pulled up beside him. Once beside the victim, one of the males began shooting at the victim, striking him two times. No apprehensions were made
